READY WHEN YOU ARE

For your day-to-day business, you need a printer you can rely on and one which delivers impeccable document output, every time you print. Toshiba's e-STUDIO408P offers just that. With a print speed of 40 pages per minute (ppm) and a fast first print output time, this productive printer is ready when you need it.

Compatible with most operating systems, the printer is easy to install and even easier to use. Network capability and mobile printing features make the e-STUDIO408P an ideal choice for small to medium-sized businesses and workgroups. And if needed, it can grow with your needs, for example, you can easily add additional paper sources to increase its capacity.

High-level security features are standard on the e-STUDIO408P to protect the device from unauthorised access.

Contact Toshiba or your local Toshiba partner to discover more about the amazing value this printer has to offer.
